Dad, ~~feel~~ I don't work as hard as I should and I feel I am lazy compared to others here that I've seen work. I feel as a Supervisor I ain't shit. I see alot of shit go on and I fail to write it or report it because I want to look good and I want people to like me. I value friendship too highly that's why I never make any complaints on the people I associate with. I feel that I am too family orientated.

Thankyou Dad,

Shirley Baisay
