Subject: What I want to do about the enemy.

Personally I think as I suggested once before that: one guerrilla could set a chain of bombs where ever necessary to destroy all those major information holding persons such as, Tim Stone, Gaea, the Mertles etc. I would like to volunteer because I feel and always have felt paralleled to Gus in destiny and would like to do something to help avenge his murder. I feel capable to follow instructions and if any assignment was/is assigned please consider me. Thank you, Dad

P.S. I'm not saying that bombing is the total answer to the problems but I think in some cases it might work of course I'm capable of many other creative thoughts on how to red the enemies of their lives.
