

MANN

Friday/1st
July 21/22

(1) Mann made a comment abt that he almost gave the book he just finished which I am reading (The Search of Spies, a CIA expose) to the Prime Minister. But the Prime Minister already has it.

(2) [Ed may have already written this] He sd he was going to speak to Judge Bishop abt the case. He sd it is still the contempt of court and writ of habeas corpus before the court, isn't it? I sd yes. It then sd "we've heard of someone in government that it was going to be a favorable decision for Jim. He just sd, oh (as a question) abt it is not an affirmation or denunciation - definitely a neutral "oh" to change the subject.

(3) When I told him about the blood test which is admissible in a Calif court, ~~sd~~ and how our lawyer challenged ~~him~~ <sup>them</sup> to the blood test and he refused, he sd, "I believe Jesus is fucking down the whole Temple, has done." He said it with devious little smile. The whole point was to enrage me with a line of defensive comments and anger at his <sup>behavior</sup>.

He's like a dirty old man who says ~~dirty~~ words for the shock value.

(2) He says "constantly!" "do you think — thinks we fuck?" Yesterday it was Maria. When he asked me, I jumped up and went to the telephone and said, "let's ask her." I dialed and got Maria on the line: told her ~~her~~ <sup>her</sup> ~~her~~ <sup>her</sup> said a question. He nearly crumbled until I stopped. I was so disgusted that I nearly asked but thought it wd be carrying things a bit too far.

(3) Like most child molesters, he was fascinated by Maria's lie detector test. He thought Maria's dad was suing Maria. I told him no - he'd never take a chance because he'd lose for sure. I told him Maria wd not have done this if he hadn't taken the matter to court. He didn't comment.

Our conversations over the last day and a half have been mostly monologues and he hasn't had much to say — that is, on relevant issues.]

③
⑥ "I told him we were suing them for $50 million.
He said "what for?" I said conflict of interest. I said he gave us advice on civil matters which he is using against us. He said, "why get into this?"
I said, you can't just sit by and let them do that to us, I said you have to fight fire with fire. He just bucked his teeth a genuine (expression of disgust)
